For a complete description of course content and curriculum, go to our web site at www.logreadance.com.

Pre and Elementary Levels are introductory courses in ballet for children ages 3 to 6.

Ballet I through III are beginner levels for children approximately 6 through 10 years of age.

Ballet Levels IV and above, including A through D, and all pointe classes, require placement by the directors.

Tap 1 is for ages 6 and up;

Jazz 1 is for ages 6 and up;

Modern 1 is for ages 6 and up.

Students enrolled in these Beginner classes will be advanced to another class once the required skill level has been achieved.

Children's Workshop is a performance and repertory class focusing on character dance and, later in the term, provides an introduction to pointe work. Enrollment is by invitation.

Workshops, junior through senior levels, are performance and repertory classes, and registration is by invitation.

Conservatory is an accelerated technique class for dancers in Ballet III - A. Enrollment is by invitation.

Ballet Conditioning classes work toward enhanced strength and flexibility of the feet, legs, back and core. (see above⁺).

Turn classes are advanced technique classes, enrolled by invitation.

Modern classes require additional enrollment in at least one ballet class per week, and placement is by the instructor.

Jazz classes require additional enrollment in at least one ballet class per week, and placement is by the instructor except for Beginner level.

Theater Dance is for ages 8 and up. No additional enrollment is required.
